CONVEYANCING

An Introduction to Barwells Conveyancing Department

At all of our Barwells offices there is an experienced and friendly Conveyancing team ready and waiting to help you. Buying a property is the single most important financial transaction that most people will make. We want to make it as easy as possible.

Our Services

Barwells conveyancing covers a wide range of transactions:-

- Sale or purchase of houses
- Sale and purchase of leasehold flats
- Sale and purchase of new build properties
- Remortgages of all types of properties
- Tenancy agreements

Barwells can also help you with related matters such as:-

- Advice regarding joint ownership
- Arrangements for Inheritance Tax planning
- Some of the less welcome issues that can arise from owning property, such as boundary or neighbour disputes

Why choose Barwells?

Barwells believes that communication is one of the most important methods of helping clients. We aim to keep our clients in touch with the progress of their matter and also to make good use of our established relationships with the other organisations involved in your transaction such as the Estate Agents, Mortgage Companies and Surveyors. We use modern technology to assist with the prompt and smooth progress of your transaction.

What will it cost?

In most cases Barwells will be able to quote a fixed fee for straightforward transactions. We will also supply a written fees estimate giving you full information about all the expected costs and expenses and will tell you as soon as possible if any of these might change.

If you feel that your transaction is not straightforward we will arrange for your case to be dealt with by one of our senior qualified conveyancing solicitors. This might apply for example:-

- with a high value transaction
- with complicated financial arrangements
- with intricate legal arrangements
- with a complex legal title

In these cases it will sometimes not be possible to set a fixed fee for the transaction but a written estimate will be supplied wherever possible.

Our commitment to you

Our commitment is to be efficient, friendly, communicative and to supply the level of service you require.
