WILLS AND LASTING POWERS OF ATTORNEY

Legal advice on your terms

Only
£150
(inc. VAT)

If you've got questions about making a Will or Lasting Powers of Attorney (LPA's), this is your chance to arm yourself with friendly advice and guidance. While traditional time-based rates for solicitors can be costly, we like to offer an affordable alternative. QualitySolicitors' Ask the Legal Expert service can give you the help you need, with up to 45 minutes of advice and the certainty of a fixed price of just £150, and, if you decide to instruct us to prepare your Will and or LPA we will deduct what you have paid from our usual fees.

Ask the Legal Expert What's included for £150?

45 minutes with an experienced legal advisor that can be used to:

- Answer your questions or talk through your options
- Review documents (reading them with you or in advance as part of your 45 minutes)

Legal advice, tailored for your situation

To help you get the most out of your session, we'll work with you to set a clear aim for what you'd like to achieve and we'll answer any burning questions. It's also a chance to find out what's happened with cases similar to yours, tapping into the experience of a legal adviser. We offer practical guidance for your situation based on the information you give us.

Face-to-face personal attention

Seeking advice, in person, from an experienced legal advisor can significantly improve the outcome of your situation. Oftentimes it can be helpful to have an impartial third party cut through to the core of the matter and help to define the real, underlying legal issue. Of course, if you're not able to attend an appointment at one of our offices, we'd be happy to assist you over the phone.

One-off meeting with no further obligations

In a number of cases, your matter may require further action beyond the 45 minutes you have with your legal adviser. We'll ensure you're clear on any next steps so you have a clear path forward and can work towards full resolution. The 45-minute ALE session you have with one of our solicitors gives you the flexibility to have the one meeting with no obligation to take matters further, or you can instruct us for a full resolution of your matter. If you do instruct us the fee you have paid is deducted from our usual charges.

Ask the Legal Expert – terms and conditions

You - Title: _____ First name: _____

Surname: _____

Address: _____

Phone: _____ Email: _____

Us: QualitySolicitors _____

1. By accepting after us these terms and conditions you will be entering into a binding legal contract with us. Where you accept this agreement online or provide us with your email address, you agree to receive information about this agreement and service electronically, such as by email.
2. In these terms and conditions “us”, “we” and “our” mean the QualitySolicitors firm offering this service and “you” and “your” means you – the person agreeing to these terms and conditions.
3. You must be aged 18 or over – otherwise you must ask an adult to consider accepting these terms on your behalf.

What you are buying

4. For the fixed cost of £150 (including VAT) you are buying the right to an Ask the Legal Expert (ALE) session.
5. It will be provided to you by one of our legal advisors, who is experienced in the preparation of Wills and LPAs.
6. It will take place at our offices (unless you prefer it to be provided by telephone) and can be arranged to take place when our offices are open during our usual office hours between 9am and 5pm Monday to Friday.
7. The ALE session will last up to 45 minutes. If your session exceeds this we reserve the right to charge you at our full hourly rate should you not wish to instruct us.
8. You will have the right to arrange your ALE session for six months from the date you pay for the service.
9. Once you have paid, your money is not refundable.
10. You cannot pass the right to the ALE service to someone else without our agreement and they will also have to agree to these terms and conditions.
11. It is an important condition that you understand and accept the nature and limitations of the ALE service.

Benefits of the ALE service

12. You can use our Free Free Initial Assessment, to provide background information in advance – to maximise the use you get out of your 45 minutes ALE session. Alternatively, please feel free to complete the enclosed questionnaire to us for review.
13. As part of the ALE service, the legal adviser will express his or her view as to how the law affects you based on their general knowledge and experience of the area of the law.
14. You can use the time to explore the legal options available to you, with the legal adviser answering your questions and addressing your worries.
15. You will receive insight based on the legal adviser experience of the area of law.
16. You can use the service to help you decide what further action to take – either on your own or by instructing a legal adviser.
17. You will receive practical advice in plain English. With any legal jargon explained.
18. We aim to leave you knowing more about where you stand and how to get the best out of the legal system.

Limitations of the ALE service

19. The advice given by us is limited to what can be achieved in 45 minutes.
20. The advice is only available for legal issues governed by the laws of England and Wales.
21. The service is not the same as instructing a legal adviser to spend all the time needed to find out all the relevant facts from you, your documents and any other party and then providing comprehensive and specific advice, which could take several hours.
22. The advice given is based on the information you provide in the limited time available.
23. Given the limited time, the advice will be neither comprehensive nor specific but should leave you more knowledgeable of the general area of law, even though it may not solve your problem.
24. The advice will be of a general nature, based on the legal adviser's general experience of the area of law.
25. In 45 minutes, the legal adviser's will not have the time to conduct a detailed review of any documents you provide.
26. The legal adviser's will only be able to take account of the facts and evidence provided by you.

27. If you do not provide the complete picture or miss out any facts or evidence that goes against you then the legal adviser's will not be able to take these matters into account when advising you. So, if there is something important or relevant that you think we should know (even if it is unhelpful to your case) it is important that you tell us.
28. In 45 minutes, the legal adviser's will not have time to undertake research of relevant case law or statutes.
29. At the end of the service the legal adviser will summarise their advice and any steps you or we will take. If we provide you with any written summary of options available or action plan or draft letter during or after the service, this is strictly subject to these terms and conditions and can only be treated as a general overview based on what you told us in the limited time available. If we keep a paper record of our service to you, it is our practice to destroy these after 6 years.
30. With the ALE service, you will not be represented by us, instead the ALE service is limited to a one-off session of legal advice, without the costs associated with instructing us to take on your case or transaction. However, after the ALE service you may decide to go onto instruct us, but that is separate from this ALE service.

Feedback on the service

31. We are passionate about providing new and innovative legal services that are better than traditional law firms at meeting your needs. If you have any feedback on the 'Ask the Legal Expert' service (even if it is a complaint) we would like to hear from you.

The client care partner will provide you with full details of our complaints handling procedure. You also have the right to take your complaint to the Legal Ombudsman (www.legalombudsman.org.uk) within 6 months of the date of receiving our final response. In any event, you have a right to go to the Legal Ombudsman within 6 years from the date of the act you wish to complain about or 3 years from when you knew about it. You can contact the Legal Ombudsman on 0300 555 0333, enquiries@legalombudsman.org.uk or by writing to them at Legal Ombudsman, PO Box 6167, Slough, SL1 0EH. Our regulator's code of conduct can be found at www.sra.org.uk/solicitors/handbook/code/content.page

General terms and conditions

32. Where we agree to provide this service by telephone or by video conference then you have the right to change your mind and cancel this agreement for 14 calendar days from the date of this agreement – and then within 14 days we'll pay you a full refund by the same method as you paid us. Just let us know by using the cancellation notice form attached to these terms and conditions. If the service is arranged with you to take place during this 14 day period, then accepting this agreement is your written request for us to provide the service at that time. Once it has been provided you are not then able to cancel the agreement.
33. We reserve the right to end the ALE service promotion or alter these terms and conditions at any time, on giving you reasonable notice. This might be for legal, regulatory, business or policy reasons. If you go on to use the ALE service following such a change, then you will be considered to have accepted the updated terms and conditions.
34. We reserve the right to either not provide the ALE service to you (in which case we will refund the payment made within 14 days of notifying you) or to delegate the legal work to a legal adviser employed by another QualitySolicitors firm of solicitors. This might be for reasons such as availability, expertise, conflict of interest or your convenience.
35. The data collected by us from you in booking your ALE session, where you agree, will only be used for the purposes of letting you know about the legal services, updates on legal matters and changes in the law; together with special offers offered by us and our partner businesses. The data will not be provided to any third party.
36. We are members of the QualitySolicitors, a collective of independent law firms. We are independent from Quality Solicitors Organisation Ltd (QSO) who run the network. We have been selected for membership by QSO because of our high service standards and the excellent client feedback we have received. This gives you the reassurance that we are a quality-checked firm. To ensure the highest standards are maintained, if you accept this agreement, you are also agreeing to our records of providing this service to you being audited by QSO and to us supplying information to QSO about the service and charges. This is solely to enable quality control and your confidentiality will otherwise be completely protected. If you object to this disclosure, you must tell us and your objection will be honoured.
37. These terms and conditions shall prevail in the event of any conflict or inconsistency with any other communications, including advertising or promotional materials.
38. These terms and conditions replace all previous versions, are correct as of 17 March 2025 and shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of England and Wales, and any disputes will be decided only by the English and Welsh courts.
39. By attending your booked ALE session you are deemed to have accepted the T&Cs even if you have not signed and returned them.
