

Quality Solicitors Copley Clark Complaints Procedure

We are committed to providing a high-quality legal service to our clients. When something goes wrong, we need you to tell us about it. This will help us to sort out any mistakes or misunderstandings, and to improve our standards.

If you have a complaint, please raise the problem with the lawyer responsible for your matter, or if you prefer, their Team Leader, who will try to resolve your concerns, in the first instance. If it is not possible to resolve things to your satisfaction, the matter will be formally referred to our complaints partner, Neil Hughes.

You may, of course, refer your complaint direct to our complaints partner at the outset, if you so wish.

What will happen next?

1. We will acknowledge receipt of your complaint in writing within three days of receiving it.
2. We will then investigate your complaint. This will normally involve our complaints partner reviewing your file and speaking to the member of staff who acted for you.
3. Within 14 days of sending you the acknowledgement letter our complaints partner will write to you setting out his initial findings and may offer suggestions for resolving the matter. Alternatively, he may invite you to a meeting to discuss and resolve your complaint. If you do not want a meeting or it is not possible, our complaints partner may instead offer you a chance to discuss the matter by telephone.
4. Within 5 days of any such meeting, or any telephone conversation, our complaints partner will write to you to confirm what took place and any solutions we have agreed with you.
5. If there is no meeting or telephone discussion, he will send you a detailed written reply to your complaint, including his suggestions for resolving the matter, within 21 days of sending you the written acknowledgement of your complaint referred to in paragraph 1 above.
6. At this stage, if you are still not satisfied, you should contact us again and we will arrange for another partner or someone unconnected with the matter at the firm to review the decision.
7. We will write to you within 14 days of receiving your request for a review, confirming our final position on your complaint and explaining our reasons.
8. If we have to change any of these timescales we will let you know and explain why.
9. If you are still not satisfied (or if we have failed to respond to your complaint within a period of 8 weeks from the date you made it), you can contact the Legal Ombudsman, PO Box 6806, Wolverhampton WV1 9WJ about your complaint. Any complaint to the Legal Ombudsman must usually be made within six months of the date of our final written response on your complaint but for further information, you should contact the Legal Ombudsman on 0300 555 0333 or at enquiries@legalombudsman.org.uk. Note that the Legal Ombudsman service cannot be used by businesses or most other organisations unless they are below certain size limits. Further details are available from the Legal Ombudsman.

10. If a complaint cannot be resolved you may also be able to ask for it to be referred to a process of alternative dispute resolution using a certified provider. We are not required to agree to such a request. In any case this is not available to businesses, only consumers. We will give you more information about that right if it becomes relevant.
11. If your complaint concerns the dishonesty or the behaviour of a member of our firm please refer the matter direct to the Team Leader or our Complaints Partner. You may also be entitled to report such a concern or concerns to the Solicitors Regulation Authority (SRA). You can find out more about this on their website: <https://www.sra.org.uk>. Otherwise their contact details are as follows:
