

COMPLAINTS PROCEDURE

Our complaints policy :

We are committed to providing a high quality legal service to all our clients. When something goes wrong, we need you to tell us about it. This will help us to improve our standards.

Our complaints procedure :

If you have a complaint, please contact Mr David Jones or Mr Richard Johnson, who are the Partners responsible for dealing with client care issues. You can contact them by post at either our Rhyl office (29/31 Kinmel Street, Rhyl, LL18 1AH) or Colwyn Bay office (25 Princes Drive, Colwyn Bay, LL29 8HT) or via e-mail at dmjones@edwardhughes.biz or rfjohnson@edwardhughes.biz.

What will happen next :

1. We will send you a letter or e-mail acknowledging receipt of your complaint within a maximum of three days of us receiving the complaint, enclosing a copy of this procedure.
2. We will then investigate your complaint. This will normally involve reviewing your file and speaking to the member of staff who acted for you. If your complaint relates to a matter where the file has been closed, we may need to obtain your file from our archive storage facility, which may take 1-2 days.
3. Mr David Jones will send you a detailed reply to your complaint, including his suggestions for resolving the matter, within 21 days of sending you the acknowledgement letter.
4. At this stage, if you are still not satisfied, you should contact us again and we will arrange for a partner who has not had any dealings with your matter to review the initial decision.
5. We will write you within 14 days of receiving your request for a review, confirming our final position on your complaint and explaining your reasons.
6. If you are still not satisfied, you can contact the Legal Ombudsman (LeO) at the Office for Legal Complaints on 0300 555 0333, or by writing to PO Box 6806, Wolverhampton, WV1 9WJ.
E-mail : enquiries@legalombudsman.org.uk

The LeO will not normally deal with complaints unless our complaints procedure has been exhausted and allows us to do this within eight weeks. The LeO asks that you contact his office within six months of your last contact with the firm. Please note that the LeO will not handle complaints from large businesses (see the LeO website – www.legalombudsman.org.uk).

What to do if you are unhappy with our behaviour

The Solicitors Regulation Authority can help if you are concerned about our behaviour. This could be for things like dishonesty, taking or losing your money or treating you unfairly because of your age, a disability or other characteristic.

Visit their website to see how you can raise your concerns with the Solicitors Regulation Authority.

Objecting to our bill(s) :

You may have the right to object to our bill by applying to the Court for an assessment of the bill under Part III of the Solicitors Act 1974.

Non-payment of our bill(s) :

You should be aware that the firm may be entitled to charge interest if all or part of our bill(s) remain unpaid.

If we have to change any of the timescales above, we will let you know and explain why.
