

QUALITY SOLICITORS J A HUGHES

COMPLAINTS PROCEDURE

We are confident that we will give you a high-quality service in all respects. However, if you have any queries or concerns about our work for you, please take them up first with the fee earner concerned. If that does not resolve the problem to your satisfaction or you would prefer not to speak to that person then please take it up with this firm's Complaints Partner who is Jeremy Davies.

If you are not satisfied with our handling of your complaint, you can ask the

Legal Ombudsman,

PO Box 6806, Wolverhampton, WV1 9WJ,

Website: www.legalombudsman.org.uk

Tel: 0300 555 0333,

Email: enquiries@legalombudsman.co.uk to consider the complaint.

For the Legal Ombudsman to deal with your complaint the problem must ordinarily have occurred after 5th October 2010.

If the problem occurred on or before 5th October 2010 or you should reasonably have known there was cause for complaint, on or before that date, then the Ombudsman will not usually be able to deal with your complaint.

If you are unsure about these time limits and how they apply to your matter, please contact the Legal Ombudsman's office, using the contact details shown above, to clarify the position.

Subject to the above Scheme Rules, and the Legal Ombudsman's discretion to extend the time limits, you will need to bring your complaint to the Legal Ombudsman

- a) within six months of receiving a final written response from us about your complaint and,
- b) no later than 6 years from when the problem (act or omission) occurred or,
- c) no later than 3 years from the date, you should reasonably have known that there was cause for complaint.

Please Note

1. If your complaint is specifically about our bill, you have the right to object to it and apply for an assessment of it under part III of the Solicitors Act 1974. If you should choose to exercise this right, and the court is assessing our bill, you may be unable to use the Legal Ombudsman service.

2. If you are complaining as a business client, unless you are a "micro business" (as defined by the European Union), you may not be able to use the Legal Ombudsman scheme, and should check the guidance on Legal Ombudsman's website.

3. If you refer your complaint to the Legal Ombudsman as a trustee/personal representative (executor/administrator) or beneficiary of the estate/trust of a person who, before they died, had not referred the complaint to the Legal Ombudsman the period runs from when the deceased should reasonably have known there was cause for complaint; and when the complainant (or the deceased) should reasonably have known there was a cause for complaint will be assessed on the basis of the complainant's (or deceased's) own knowledge, disregarding what the complainant (or the deceased) might have been told if he/she had sought advice.

4. If the ombudsman considers there are exceptional circumstances (e.g. serious illness or you were still within the time limits when you made your initial complaint to them) then he/she may extend any of the above time limits to the extent that he/she considers fair.

5. The Solicitors Regulation Authority (www.sra.org.uk) can help you if you are concerned about our behaviour. This could be for things like dishonesty, taking or losing your money or treating you unfairly because of your age, a disability or other characteristic.
