

Wills in the UK

Reservations amongst the over 50s

We've asked 1000 people

Do you have a valid, up-to-date will?

70%

don't have a valid, or up-to-date will document

46%

have had a major life change since they last reviewed the document

Wills gathering dust...

Life changes... but has your will?

Barriers to talking about wills

25%

adults of all ages are delaying writing wills for the following main reasons:

- 21% say that it is "too much hassle"
- 21% feel they don't have enough assets to make it worthwhile
- 21% have concerns about the legal costs involved
- 19% it hasn't occurred to them that they might need a will

Adults with a valid will in the UK

Everyone deserves a will

74%

of women admit that they would not be 'completely confident' that their family members would know how to attend to their wishes or distribute their assets

27%

of British women believe they don't actually have any assets to make it worthwhile creating a will

Do you want to arrange your affairs but are nervous about discussing the issues?

Don't keep it to yourself. We're here to help.

Visit www.qualitysolicitors.com/wills-and-probate to find out how we can help you.

QualitySolicitors

Changing the way you see lawyers